FMEA All-State Orff Ensemble Music Teacher Audition Packet

FEMEA Mission Statement

The mission of the Florida Elementary Music Educators Association (FEMEA) is to unite and support music educators in order to provide a high quality comprehensive music education for all children.

FEMEA All-State Orff Ensemble Mission Statement and Goals

The mission of the FMEA All-State Orff Ensemble is to provide an inclusive ensemble experience that respects, affirms, and protects the dignity and worth of all through the creative music and movement approach developed by Carl Orff and Gunild Keetman.

The goals of this ensemble are:

1. To provide elementary school students with an exciting, quality Orff-based experience with other students.
2. To encourage elementary school students to share Orff artistry and grow as musicians.
3. To inspire elementary music educators to create a new set of standards of musical excellence in the public and private schools.
4. To develop pathways for underserved populations to participate.

We are delighted that you are interested in participating in the FMEA All-State Orff Ensemble. Students who are accepted for the FMEA All-State Orff Ensemble will achieve a unique honor for themselves and their schools. FEMEA is committed to setting new standards of musical excellence in the public and private schools of Florida through an exciting, high quality experience for students. We hope that you will lend your support to this event by participating in the audition process.

Before submitting application forms and audition videos, please read the contents of this packet thoroughly. The packet contains everything you need to know to assure a successful FMEA All-State Orff Ensemble experience. Please use this email for any questions or concerns: AskAllState@femea.flmusiced.org

We look forward to working with you and creating a memorable All-State Orff experience with our conductors, Karen Benson, and Chris Judah-Lauder.

Preparation

Tips for Success

- Prepare all audition music with students. Consider printing and using rubric for self-check and teacher-evaluation prior to recording.
- Prepare yourself for recording the audition by reading all instructions carefully.
- Secure an Orff-style alto xylophone (no concert xylophones).
- Practice making recordings from the device being used. Remember to set the phone in landscape mode and check audio.

3. There are no verbal prompts given by the teacher during recording.
4. The student will perform the prepared body percussion piece, “Sleep Tight.” First time with speech and body percussion. Second time with body percussion only.
5. Be sure the student is closer to the microphone than the teacher during “America, America” The student’s voice should be dominant on the video.
6. The final part of the audition is the prepared song on alto xylophone.
7. Memorization is not required.
8. Students' faces are allowed to be seen. Teachers and school names are not to be seen or spoken on camera.

Audition

Ensure your video is in the required .mov or .mp4 format and turn any phone to landscape mode.
More detailed information is on the website

1. Before you turn on the video, Teacher says; “We are going to make a video for the FMEA All-State Orff Ensemble audition. When I start the video, we will record the entire audition without stopping the recording. Do not say your name, my name, or our school name during the recording.”
2. Start the video.

Part 1: Prepared Body Percussion – “Sleep Tight”

3. Student performs “Sleep Tight” alone.
First time speech + body percussion. Second time body percussion only.

♩ = 112-120 bpm

The musical score is written in 4/4 time and consists of three staves. The top staff contains the melody with lyrics: "Good-night, sleep tight. Don't let the bed bugs bite." The middle staff is labeled "Snap" and contains a series of eighth notes. The bottom staff is labeled "Clap" and contains a series of eighth notes. The piece ends with a double bar line.

Audition continues on next page -

Part 2: Sing in Canon – “America, America”

- Teacher plays starting pitch (D) one time. Do not play the melody or sing the pitch.
- Student sings “America, America” a cappella one time. As the student begins the third full measure, the teacher enters to create the round.

♩ = 100-110 bpm

Looking Ahead

Audition Results

- The 2023 All-State list will be posted on a password-protected section of the FEMEA website, femea.flmusiced.org, on October 5, 2022.
- An adjudication panel of at least three judges will select approximately 80 - 100 students to participate in the FMEA All-State Orff Ensemble.
- All judges’ decisions are final. No audition recordings will be re-heard.
- Due to logistical restraints and confidentiality constraints, we are unable to give individual feedback.
