

A NEW STUDENT OPPORTUNITY

- Nominate 3rd Grade Students
- Attend Northern Regional
- University of Florida
- Gainesville
- Saturday, October 28, 2023

SELECTION

FEMEA Members may select two 3rd Grade students who display the potential to audition for All-State in future years. These students will explore a variety of music experiences together and share some of their learning in an informal performance. Selection for the festival will depend on capacity and be announced on October 5, 2023.

REQUIREMENTS

Students will be expected to follow school rules during this activity. A parent/guardian is required to attend with each child. Parents will provide transportation, supervision during breaks, food, beverages and any other needs.

Cost is $45 per student.

Students selected should be confident and comfortable with new experiences, demonstrate self-control and have the ability to focus. Students will develop their musicianship skills while joyfully making music with like-minded peers.

SESSIONS WILL INCLUDE

1. Orff Activities

Students will explore activities on instruments and learn the body percussion piece "Goodnight, Sleep Tight".

2. Singing Games, Props and Dances

Students will play song games, prop activities and folk dances with this special group of outstanding students.

3. Vocal Technique and Singing

Shake the Papaya Partner song, vocal skill development will be topics for study.
